Yale-Konstanz-Workshop: History - Memory - Identity

18-20 May 2005

For the third time, our workshop will deal with the topic of History, Memory and Identity. Prof. Jay Winter, Prof. Karsten Harries and Prof. John Demos from Yale University will participate in the programme together with their post-graduate-students. This year, we also have participants from Dublin with their Professor Anne Fuchs. The workshop will be organised as an interdisciplinary „Blockseminar“, in which students of Literature, History and Sociology may participate in responding to the papers or preparing their own ones. If you are interested in joining the programme as a listener or with your response / paper, please insert your name below. Deadline: May 2nd. We will then inform you about the details via E-Mail. For more information please contact: elisabeth.mackuth@uni-konstanz.de
