Master’s programme in Economics

Sandra Geldmacher, University of Konstanz
Konstanz, 17/11/2017
Konstanz – in the heart of Europe
We’re based at the Lake Constance, bordering Switzerland and Austria.
Living in Konstanz

- mid-sized historic town
- very safe environment
- good public transportation
- bike-friendly city
- perfect conditions for water sports and mountaineering
The University of Konstanz

1 in Germany in the QS Top 50 Under 50 Ranking

92% of our international students recommend us ISB 2013

1 of 11 Universities of Excellence in Germany
First-class sports activities

Courses in

- Canoeing
- Hiking
- Sailing
- Skiing
- Climbing

Its own Fitness centre
- And much more!
Our University Campus
Situated in a beautiful forest close to the Lake Constance.
Services for international students

Getting started

- Orientation Programme before the start of your first semester
- German Language Programmes before and during each semester
- Prep Courses from the Department of Economics before you start
- Extra tutorials for compulsory modules
- Master’s hut to get to know your fellow students
- Guaranteed student housing in a convenient and safe location. Single rooms in shared apartments or single apartments available.
„Understanding, modelling and evaluating real world economic issues.“

M.Sc. Economics
Master of Science in Economics

Our offers

− 3 study tracks: Generalise, specialise, or kick off your PhD
− 5 subject areas: Specialise in the area you’re most interested in − 3 double degree options: Graduate with two degrees

− Language of tuition: English
− Duration: 4 Semesters
− Application deadline: 15th April
Admission requirements

- Bachelor’s degree in economics or a subject providing a sufficient quantitative background, e.g. business administration, mathematics, the natural sciences, etc. Students in the final year of their Bachelor's degree, who have not yet graduated, are welcome to apply.
- Evidence of knowledge acquired at Bachelor’s level in mathematics, statistics or economics
- Evidence of a sufficient command of English
- Motivation letter
- Two letters of recommendation from university teachers
- Results of the GRE test (Graduate Record Examinations).
How to apply

Application deadline: April 15th

1. Find detailed information on our website www.wiwi.uni-konstanz.de/en/study/master-of-science/economics/how-to-apply/
2. Contact us if you have any questions.
3. Collect and scan all necessary documents.
   A checklist is available on our website.
4. Apply through our online application system
   (scanned application documents are sufficient).
Why study with us?

- All classes taught entirely in English
- Big variety of classes for high quality education
- Study with top-notch, international guest researchers
- Small classes allow for close interaction with your lecturers
- Visit lectures at our partner Universities close-by, e.g. at the University of Zurich
- Excellent opportunities to start your PhD (fast track) or graduate with a double degree
- Great career opportunities
- Be part in an international and open environment in the heart of Europe
Any questions?

We’re happy to answer all your questions on the content and application process of the master’s programme.

Svenja Andresen
Email: svenja.andresen@uni-konstanz.de
Phone: + 49 (0) 7531 88 3452

Skype: dep_economics_uofkonstanz
(please arrange an appointment via email)