

Heritage Language Syntax 4 #HLS4

Workshop, 3–4 July 2023

Wolkenstein-Saal, Kulturzentrum,
78462 Konstanz

Description of the workshop:

Heritage languages, that is minority languages learned by speakers at home as children, have become the focus of various areas of linguistic research, particularly because the grammar of heritage speakers provides a window of opportunity to observe language change and contact between grammars.

In this two-day workshop, we will focus on structural aspects of heritage languages, how these are shaped by cross-linguistic influence or transfer from the heritage speakers' dominant language, how language attrition impacts on this and whether it leads to different representational outcomes in the heritage grammar.

Organization Department of Linguistics, Centre for Multilingualism, Project ProHeritageSpeakers

Funding This workshop is funded by the ProHeritageSpeakers project, which has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No 101026216, and the IRN Heritage Languages in Europe, supported by the Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique and hosted by the lab Structures Formelles du Langage & Université Paris 8.

Invited speakers:

- Jill Jegerski,
University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign
- Tanja Kupisch, University of Konstanz,
UiT The Arctic University of Norway
- Natalia Meir, Bar-Ilan University
- Monika S. Schmid, University of York

Programme

Contact

hls2023@uni-konstanz.de

– ling.uni.kn/hls2023