7.)	Überlingen and Goldbach tunnel*)	Germany
presented by: International Office 	 Fri, 28 June 2024       9am – approx. 6pm       5 With the aim of protecting the military equipment production at Lake Constance from attack, around 800 prisoners from the Dachau concentration camp had to blast tunnels out of the rock and transport the rock away within seven months. 234 prisoners did not survive their imprisonment and the working conditions. Today, the tunnel is a memorial to the victims of National Socialism. During a guided tour of the tunnel, we learn how important it is to counter neo-Nazi tendencies and to combat the idea that violence can lead to the solution of social problems. We travel by boat from Konstanz-Wallhausen to Überlingen and walk to the Goldbach tunnel. Afterwards there will be time to explore the town of Überlingen individually. Meeting point: Harbour Konstanz - Wallhausen, access with line 4/13 The temperature in the tunnel is a constant 12 degrees Celsius. Please wear warm clothing and sturdy shoes.  Sun, 23. June 2024       11:59pm       https://uni.kn/international-office/excursions  Mon, 24. June 2024       1:30– 2:30pm, yellow ticket box at the gallery directly at the main entrance       international.excursions@uni-konstanz.de
8.)	Strasbourg and European Parliament*)	France
presented by: International Office 	 Fri, 05 July 2024       6:45am – approx. 8pm       25 We will first visit the European Parliament with a guided tour through the aisles of the parliament and experience the assembly hall of the world's biggest transnational parliament. Afterwards the bus will bring us to the historical city centre. You will then have free time to explore the old town. Departure: Telekom tower: Moltkestraße (near Zähringerplatz) Limited amount of seats: first come, first served! Please take your personal ID card/passport and visa/residence permit card with you to the excursion.  Sun, 23.
