

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Memory and Justice

4 October 2022, 10:00 – 18:00, Y 326 / hybrid

Workshop with Prof. Dr. Elizabeth Jelin

Elizabeth Jelin is a Senior Researcher at CONICET (Consejo Nacional de Investigaciones Científicas y Técnicas of Argentina), working at IDES (Instituto de Desarrollo Económico y Social) in Buenos Aires, Argentina. She obtained a PhD in Sociology at the University of Texas at Austin. Her research interests and publications are in the fields of human rights, memory of political repression, citizenship, social movements, gender and the family. She is one of the leading researchers on memory at a global scale.

She currently teaches at the Doctoral Program in the Social Sciences at UNGS-IDES, a program she directed since its creation in 2003 through 2007. Professor Jelin is a member of the editorial committees of a number of journals and publications in the field of the social sciences.

Prof. Dr. Elizabeth Jelin is coming to the University of Konstanz invited by the Zukunftskolleg. Connected to her visit, this workshop on memory and justice is a platform for interested researchers to share their work and receive feedback from Prof. Jelin and the other participants. The workshop is meant to be an open friendly space to share work in progress.

Please indicate if you would like to participate either as part of the audience or as a presenter. For those presenting, please share an abstract and/or the working paper.

The workshop is free of charge.

Coordination: Valeria Vegh Weis and Gruia Badescu (Research Fellows, Zukunftskolleg), Anke Hoeffler (Dept. of Politics and Public Administration)
