3. General information

Please note the data protection information at the bottom of the website:

<https://www.uni-konstanz.de/en/university/general-information/information-on-data-protection/>

4. Legal basis

We process your data based on your consent as per Article 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. a) of the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

5. Purpose and scope of data processing

When you actively participate in a videoconference, the following data will be processed, e.g.: the IP address, your name, the meeting metadata, audio and video files, chat content. The processed data are required for active class participation, oral presentation in this seminar.

6. Consequences of not providing data

Should you not give your consent, you cannot participate in the online event mentioned above. You will not suffer any further disadvantages.

7. Using cookies

When you visit a page, the browser will save a so-called "session cookie" to the end device in use after a one-time log-in to protected areas. The cookie will be deleted as soon as the browser is closed. The purpose here is to recognize multiple related requests from the same user, which preserves the user's log-in status while using the website. Blocking these cookies can impair access to and use of the website.

8. Recipients

The data will be available only for the lecturer of this seminar and the other participants of the online event mentioned above.

9. Storage duration

Data related to your person will be deleted after the end of the seminar.

10. Your rights

- In accordance with Article 15 GDPR, you have the right to request information from the University of Konstanz about any data it stores that is related to your person and/or to have incorrect data corrected as per Article 16 GDPR.
- You can withdraw your consent at any time as per Article 7 GDPR. The withdrawal of consent will not affect the lawfulness of data processing if consent had been provided before its withdrawal.
- Moreover, you also have the right to have your data deleted (Article 17 GDPR) or the processing of data limited (Article 18 GDPR).
- To better understand and exercise your data protection rights, please contact Carola Häßler (ibh.international@uni-konstanz.de) or our data protection officer, email datenschutzbeauftragter@uni-konstanz.de.
- You also have the right to file a complaint with the regulating authority if you believe that the processing and use of your personal data is in violation of the law (Article 77 GDPR). The responsible contact person at the regulating authority is the Landesbeauftragte für den Datenschutz und die Informationsfreiheit Baden-Württemberg (state commissioner for data protection and the freedom of information in Baden-Württemberg) (<https://www.baden-wuerttemberg.datenschutz.de>).

11. Risks of publishing photos, film and audio recordings - not relevant for this event.

Please consider when providing your consent that creating and publishing recordings poses some risks for you personally. Information about you can be found using search engines, and you thus face the risk of third parties misusing the information as well as the potential risk of insufficient protection of your rights if the photos, film or audio recordings are misused or stored outside the EU.

Consent

By clicking "Ich habe gelesen und verstanden / I have read and understood" in the Data Protection section in the Application form, you declare your consent to the processing of your personal data as described in the data protection information in the context of the event:

Lake Constance Summer School

By indicating consent you declare that you have read the data protection information.

Moreover, you have been informed about the scope and purpose of the data collection and data processing as well as about your right to withdraw consent. The withdrawal of consent will not affect the lawfulness of data processing if consent had been provided before its withdrawal
